Hope and joy found amidst struggle in ‘The Journey Continues’

Author Daniel J. Nicewonger speaks openly about living with stage 4 cancer

LANDENBERG, Pa. – Author Daniel J. Nicewonger describes the moment he was diagnosed with stage 4 colon cancer as a moment he would never forget. Throughout his post-diagnosis journey and multiple rounds of chemotherapy, Nicewonger was able to find joy, peace and comfort. He shares his story with honesty and vulnerability in his debut book, “The Journey Continues: Finding Joy Amidst Life’s Struggles” (published by WestBow Press).

“The Journey Continues” shares the joys and struggles of Nicewonger as he learns to truly live while treating his cancer. He shares of learning to walk with his oncology team, how the journey affected the caregivers in his life, the disruption to family and work life and how cancer ultimately blessed him with a clarity about life that he had never had before.

“The Journey Continues” is more than a cancer story, it is a story of how cancer affected Nancy, Nicewonger’s wife and caretaker. Nicewonger states, “Everyone has struggles in life.” He continues, “I do not believe my stuff to be any different, nor better than anyone else’s. I do believe that sharing has helped me travel the journey better, and I share openly and transparently.”
